Frank Walden Memorial Scholarship

Instructions for Scholarship Application

The Frank Walden Memorial Scholarship was established by the First Presbyterian Church of Caro on August 9th, 1985, by a gift from Mrs. Walden. The Frank Walden Memorial Scholarship, a charitable designated scholarship endowment in the Tuscola County Community Foundation, was established on November 23, 2011.

The purpose of the Frank Walden Memorial Scholarship is to provide a scholarship for Caro High School Students who are members or attend the First Presbyterian Church of Caro or to other students as determined by a scholarship review committee appointed by the session of the First Presbyterian Church of Caro. The scholarship is open to Caro High School students of any age graduating high school or currently in college and a graduate of CHS, for one year. All application requirements must be completed by the posted deadline to qualify. The recipient of the award will be recommended by the session of the First Presbyterian Church of Caro to the TCCF Board of Trustees.
